

In the Heat of the Night

Across the room through smoky light
Knew you'd be mine before the end of the night
No words were said but we both knew
There was no stopping what we needed to do

And when the moment came in the heat of the night
The fire burned out of control til the early morning light

A quiet room, a neon light
The sound of the city at night
Whiskey, coke and cigarettes
We took in everything we could get

We had it all with no regrets
It was a night we can never forget
It wasn't wrong, it wasn't right
It was impossible to put up a fight
