

I Wasn't Looking for Trouble

i ain't packin no pistol, I ain't packin no knife
I never mess around with any another man's wife
I go to church on Sunday
I give money to the poor
But trouble trouble trouble always knockin' on my door
I wasn't lookin' I wasn't lookin' for trouble
I wasn't lookin' for trouble but trouble come lookin' for me

A went over to my friend and I borrowed his car
I was drivin' down the street but I didn't get far Behind me came the police, I heard the siren wail
They said "son this car is stolen" now you're going to jail
I wasn't lookin' I wasn't lookin' for trouble
I wasn't lookin' for trouble but trouble come lookin' for me

I met a girl in Texas and we had a little fun
I told her I'd be leaving when I saw the morning sun
Her daddy came and found me
With a shotgun and a smile
The next thing I remember I was walking down the aisle
I wasn't lookin' I wasn't lookin' for trouble
I wasn't lookin' for trouble but trouble come lookin' for me

I wasn't lookin' I wasn't lookin' for trouble
I wasn't lookin' I wasn't lookin' for trouble
I wasn't lookin' for trouble but trouble come lookin' for me
